In the course of operating the Website and/or interacting with you, we will collect (and/or receive) the following types of information.

1. PERSONAL INFORMATION.

When you sign up to receive any of our newsletters, respond to a survey, register for a class, or purchase any product or service, you may be required to provide us with personal information about yourself, such as your name, address, email address, and phone number. #### 2. ORDER INFORMATION.

When you place an Order, you must provide us with certain information about the products and services you are seeking to purchase. Such information is collectively called the "Order Information."

When you wish to purchase a product or service, you will be required to provide certain information in addition to the Personal Information and Order Information noted above. Such information may include a debit card number, credit card number, expiration date, billing address, activation codes, and similar information. Such information is collectively called the "Billing Information." Although we may have access to the Billing Information, it will also be collected and processed by our third-party payment vendors pursuant to the terms and conditions of their privacy policies and terms of use.

In addition to the information noted above, we may collect additional information (collectively, the "Other Information"). Such Other Information may include:

c. From Cookies Information that we collect using "cookie" technology. Cookies are small packets of data that a website stores on your computer's or mobile device's hard drive so that your computer will "remember" information about your visit so that we can give you the best of service. We may use both session cookies (which expire once you close your web browser) and persistent cookies (which stay on your computer until you delete them) to help us collect Other Information and to enhance your experience using the Website. If you do not want us to place a cookie on your hard drive, you may be able to turn that feature off on your computer or mobile device. Please consult your Internet browser's documentation for information on how to do this and how to delete persistent cookies. However, if you decide not to accept cookies from us, the Website may not function properly.

Third parties such as Facebook may use cookies, web beacons and similar technologies to collect and receive information from our website and use that information to provide measurement services and target ads. You can also access information about opting out of the collection and use of information which may be used for ad targeting (on Facebook) at www.aboutads.info/choices.

This website will not share any personal information with third parties.

d. Third-Party Analytics We use third-party analytics services (such as Google Analytics) to evaluate your use of the Website, compile reports on activity, collect demographic data, analyse performance metrics, and collect and evaluate other information relating to the Website and mobile and Internet usage. These third parties use cookies and other technologies to help analyse and provide us the data. By accessing and using the Website, you consent to the processing of data about you by these analytics providers in the manner and for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy.

Information Collected by or Through Third-Party Advertising Companies

We may share Other Information about your activity on the Website with third parties for the purpose of tailoring, analysing, managing, reporting, and optimising advertising you see on the Website and elsewhere. These third parties may use cookies, pixel tags (also called web beacons or clear gifs), and/or other technologies to collect such Other Information for such purposes. Pixel tags enable us, and these third-party advertisers, to recognise a browser's cookie when a browser visits the site on which the pixel tag is located in order to learn which advertisement brings a user to a given site.

If you have registered for the Website, you may access, review, and make changes to your Personal Information, Billing Information, and certain Other Information by following the instructions found on the Website. We use standard OAuth (open authorisation) to enable you to give permission to share your Personal Information with other websites and services, such as Facebook and Twitter (e.g., when you agree to a pop-up requesting you to allow another application to access your account information). We also use OAuth to allow us to share information about you that is stored by us without sharing your security credentials.

We cannot be responsible for any unauthorised third-party use of such information.

How We Protect the Information
